

Live and Work Wellington: Millennial Labour Force Project

Tom LUSIS, PhD, RCIC
County of Wellington,
Economic Development

County of Wellington: Labour Force Initiatives

- Ontario 150: Promoting Youth Inclusion in Rural Labour Markets
- Immigration Advice for Employers
- Municipal Immigration Project
- Workshops for international students at the University of Guelph
- 2016 MCI: Supporting the Economic Integration of Immigrants and International Students in Rural Labour Markets
- 2017 MCI: Ease Into Canada: A Manufacturing Toolkit

Workshop for International Students

Promoting Youth Inclusion in Rural Labour Markets

- Ontario 150 funding
- Investigating intergenerational challenges in the workplace

Having challenges with youth employees?

Find out how your workplace culture compares with Millennial values.

www.wellington.ca/employer

ONTARIO
150

The workplace is changing, help employers understand how.

Take our survey (and have a chance to win an iPad).

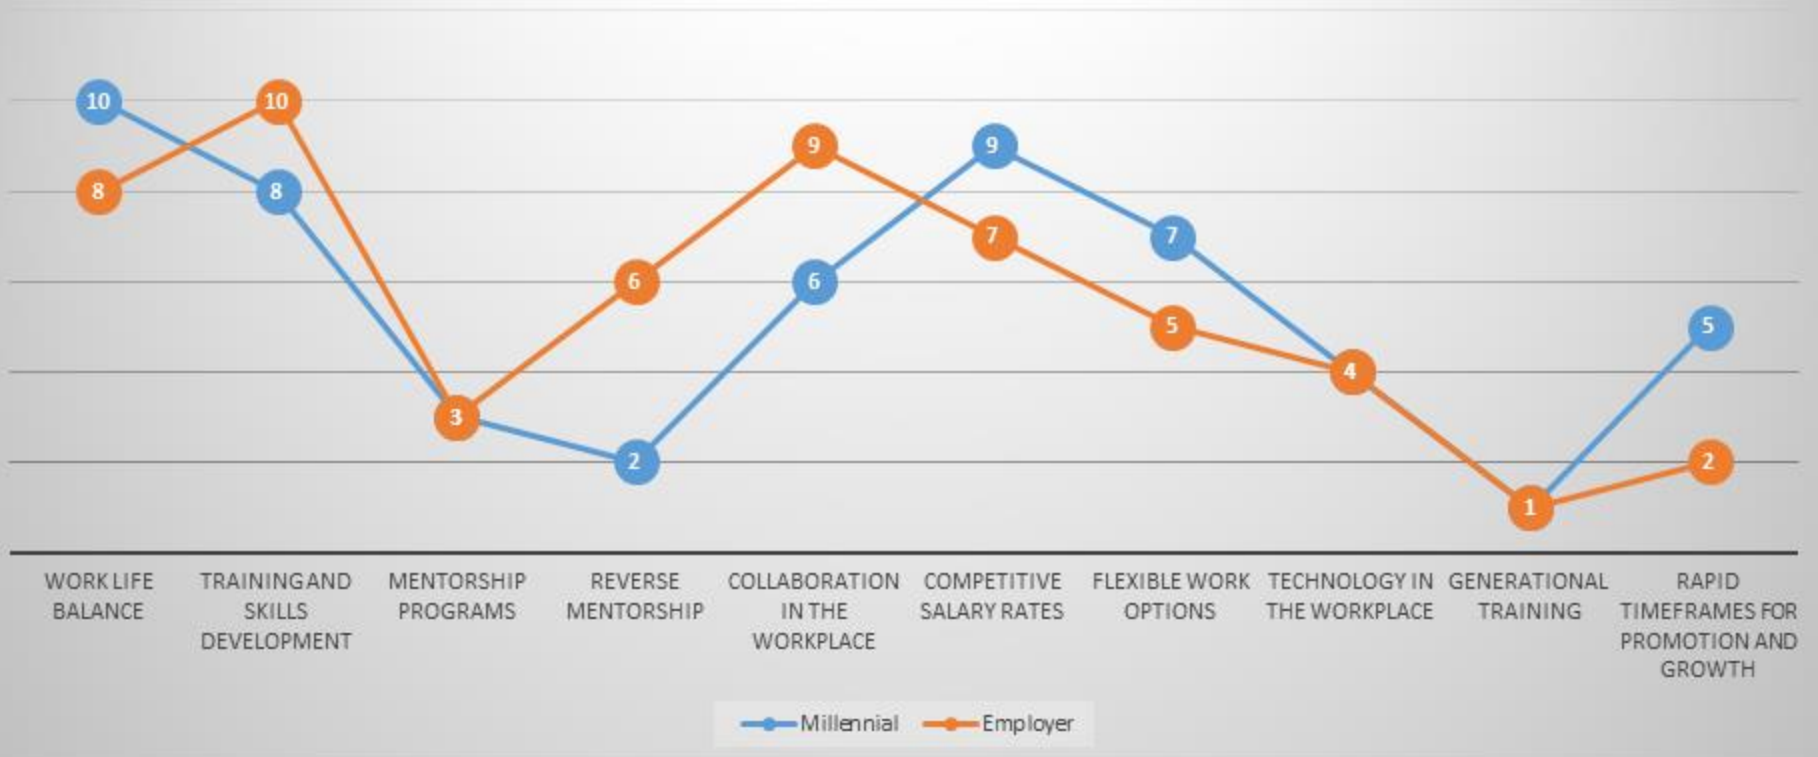

www.wellington.ca/millennial

ONTARIO
150

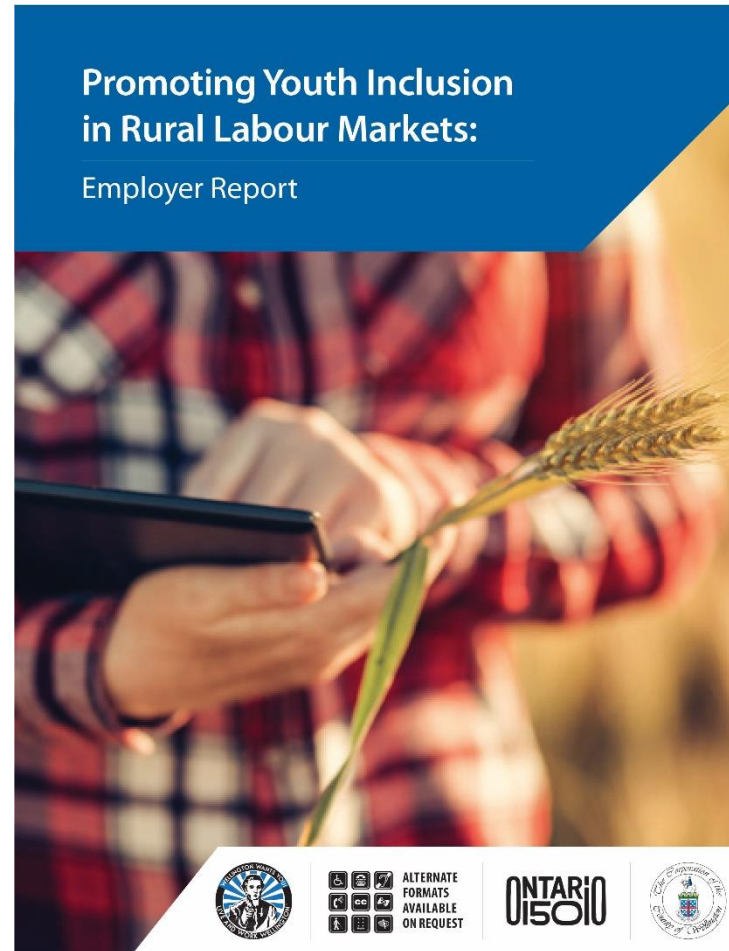

Project Results

Rank the following statements in terms of importance.
1 = Least Important | 10 = Most Important

Project Knowledge Sharing

- Customized de-brief reports.
- De-brief with partners and employers.
- Presentations to stakeholders.

Lessons learned

- Communication and perception, not a difference in values.
- Social media is useful but with caveats.
- Next steps: intergenerational training which integrates project findings.

Thank You

Tom Lusic, PhD, RCIC

toml@wellington.ca

519-837-2600 x 2610

